Learning Challenges

ABOUT US

The White Rose Family Foundation 'WRFF' is an Advocacy for Children and Teens with Learning Challenges such as Autism, Down's syndrome & ADHD, to name a few.

As well as offering their families emotional support for the challenges they themselves face, WRFF provides families with a monthly 'Events Calendar', offering an array of services to help to meet educational as well as recreational needs of the Learning Challenged within our community.

The WRFF Events Calendar, is a FREE SERVICE, for families, as well as for the Service Providers.

Refer to our website for further information.
